(2) West and the land of J. M. Burris since having been given Ten (10) days before the First (1st) day of May, 1889. to all parties interested in the survey of said land. I proceeded with the assistance of the County Surveyor of Monroe County to establish the following lines and corners in the center of the "Old Bed" of White River which we consider to be the line between Monroe and Dunn Counties as the river in this place was named as the county line. Commencing on the West Bank of the Old Bed of White River at the South East corner of said Hays' Land Thence North 87° East Ten (10) rods to three (3) lines to a stone marked "A" in the center of said "Old Bed". Thence North 18° East Forty three (43) rods and five (5) rods to a stone marked "C". Thence North 9° to the
